

Year 1
Owls

Toys

What should I already know?

- ◇ History is the study of events that happened in the past.
- ◇ There are different types of toys that we like to play with.
- ◇ Toys are made from different materials.

Evidence

How can we find out what toys were like in the past?

We can ask grandparents and other older people we know.

We can visit museums.

By watching TV/films which are set in the period of time we want to learn about.

By researching on the internet.

By reading non-fiction books.

By reading books which are set in the period of time we want to learn about.

Differences (Past and Present)

Old toys were often made out of wood

Modern (new) toys are often made out of plastic

Old toys were mechanical or moved by hand

Modern toys often use batteries

Old toys were often made by hand

Modern (new) toys are usually made by machines

Artist: Jane Hissey

Her focus of drawing is bears.

Jane uses outline pencil first then colouring pencils.

Important Changes

Technology

Safety Rules

Materials

Attitudes

Knowledge:

- * To know that toys have changed over even a relatively short period, mainly in terms of materials used to make them / technology for powering / driving them.
- * To know that their Grandparents and parents had different toys to them.
- * To know that their parents' / grandparents' generations played active games or participated in more outdoor activities than today.
- * To know that in the past most children had far fewer toys than children today.
- * To know how to order toys from old to new using a timeline.

past	Things that have already happened.
present	Something that is happening now.
parents	A mum or dad of a person.
grandparents	The parents of a person's mum or dad.
modern	Having to do with the present.
similar	Things that are the same.
toys	Something that is used for play, usually by children.
recent	Something that has happened not very long ago.
memory	Something that you remember.
artefact	A man-made object.
timeline	It shows the order of events.
ancient	Very old, made a long time ago.