

Year 1
Owls

Queens

What should I already know?

- * That history is about things that have happened in the past.
- * That parents and grandparents played with toys too but they tended to play with them outside and were active.
- * A timeline shows the order that events happened.
- * Queen Elizabeth II died recently and now we have a King.

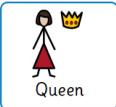

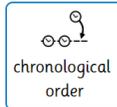

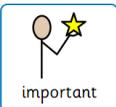

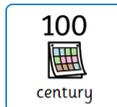

Queen Elizabeth I
1558 - 1603

Queen Victoria I
1837 - 1901

Queen Elizabeth II
1952 - 2022

Which Queen reigned at the best time:
Queen Elizabeth I, Queen Victoria or Queen Elizabeth II?

Knowledge:

- To know that Victoria, Elizabeth I and Elizabeth II's reigns were at different times in the past and they are related although generations apart.
- To know that communication and how people lived changed hugely between the three Queen's reigns.
- To know that people from Europe were beginning to explore the world in Elizabeth the 1st's time.
- To know that by Victoria's reign Britain controlled lots of other countries (Empire) .

What is a monarch and where do they live?	A monarch is a king, queen or emperor they live in palaces which are usually large and very grand.	What was Victorian life like?	Living in the Victorian period was exciting because of all the new inventions and pace of change and progress, but it was a hard time to live in if you didn't have much money. Even very young children had to work if their family needed them to.
Who were the Tudors and who was Elizabeth I?	The Tudors were a royal family who reigned over England between 1485 and 1603. The first Tudor monarch was Henry VII and the last was Elizabeth I who reigned from 1558 to 1603 .	Who is Queen Elizabeth II?	Queen Elizabeth II is the reigning monarch of the United Kingdom. She became queen in 1952 at the age of 25 and has ruled for 66 years. She is married to Prince Philip and they have 4 children and 8 grandchildren. She celebrated her diamond jubilee in 2012.
Who was Queen Victoria?	Queen Victoria was the queen of England and the Empress of India. She reigned for 64 years between 1837 and 1901 . She was 18 when she was crowned as queen. She was married to Prince Albert and they had 9 children and 40 grandchildren. She celebrated her diamond jubilee in 1897.	What are the similarities and differences between the times when the three queens reigned?	Life in Tudor times was hard especially if you were poor. Only boys from rich families could go to school. During the Victorian period there were lots of new inventions which made life easier. More children went to school but many still had to go to work. Now all children have to go to school, life is much easier and we have lots of new technology to help us.